

An exemplary Fine Arts student will...

- develop the habits of a professional artist
- persevere and excel in their craft
- demonstrate a willingness to take risks
- contribute positively in their work with others
- consider how an audience might see their work
- take pride in a polished performance

The fine arts department includes band, choir, drama, and visual art classes.

