

An Exemplary Social Studies Student Will...

Demonstrate the ability to live peacefully with others and care for our common homeland

Demonstrate self-knowledge and a consciousness of connections to nature and society

Demonstrate exemplary knowledge acquisition

Understand the key issues and think critically about our complex and changing world

Participate effectively in the community in a local and global context

